Astrid Silva, the 2014 recipient of the American Immigration Council's Immigrant Youth Achievement Award, was recently featured in a Las Vegas Sun article titled "Las Vegas immigration advocate Astrid Silva earns national honor [1]".

"A prominent immigration reform advocate and community organizer from Las Vegas who has helped influence Senate Majority Leader Harry Reid garnered more national recognition this week.

The American Immigration Council's Immigrant Youth Achievement Award winner is Astrid Silva, an organizer for the Progressive Leadership Alliance of Nevada.

Silva has been one of the most visible faces of Las Vegas' immigration reform movement, going public with her undocumented status before getting a work permit through the deferred action for childhood arrivals program."
