

Beneath the Pines: Stories of Migrant Tree Planters

The stories of migrant workers who are brought to the United States from Mexico, Guatemala and Honduras to plant trees, thin forests and apply herbicides for timber contractors.

Published On: Fri, May 19, 2006 | Download File [1]

- Just the Facts
- Immigration and Unemployment
- Integration and Citizenship
- National Legislation

Source URL:

<http://www.immigrationpolicy.org/just-facts/beneath-pines-stories-migrant-tree-planters>

Links:

[1] <http://www.immigrationpolicy.org/sites/default/files/docs/SPLCBeneaththePines.pdf>