Re: Daniel Renteria-Villegas v. Daron Hall, et al., Davidson County Chancery Court,
Case No. 11-32-II.

Dear Ms. Fox and Mr. Ozment:

The United States does not believe it is an indispensable party to the above-captioned lawsuit which alleges violations of the Metro Nashville charter and state law by state actors. As such, the United States does not intend to appear or participate in the hearing on Metro's motion to dismiss or add an indispensable party, which is currently scheduled to be heard on February 11, 2011.

We provide this information in the event you are questioned by the Court as to the United States' position.

Sincerely,

JERRY E. MARTIN
United States Attorney for the Middle District of Tennessee
